CHAT WITH MAPS

Smart Search for Places Around You
AI-Powered Large Language Model for Maps

The Challenge 🤝

Problem:

Users struggle to find specific places like restaurants or ATMs in unfamiliar areas. Manual searches are time-consuming, often inaccurate, and complicated by language barriers. A solution is needed to quickly locate places, offer multi-language and voice support, and provide real-time weather updates for a smoother experience.

Consequences:

- Wasted Time: Manually searching for places of interest can be inefficient, especially in new or unfamiliar areas.
- Inaccurate Results: Users may miss out on better options due to unreliable search results or lack of detailed information.
- Unseen Circumstances: Without real-time weather updates, users may face unexpected weather conditions, affecting their plans or travel decisions.
- Frustration: Difficulty in finding places, compounded by language barriers or the lack of voice support, can frustrate users and create a poor experience.

CWM's SOLUTION 🏆

Chat with Maps solves the challenge of locating specific places around you through a conversational interface. By leveraging Google's powerful Maps and search APIs combined with a generative AI model, Chat with Maps interprets user input intelligently, including correcting spelling mistakes and understanding variations in place types.

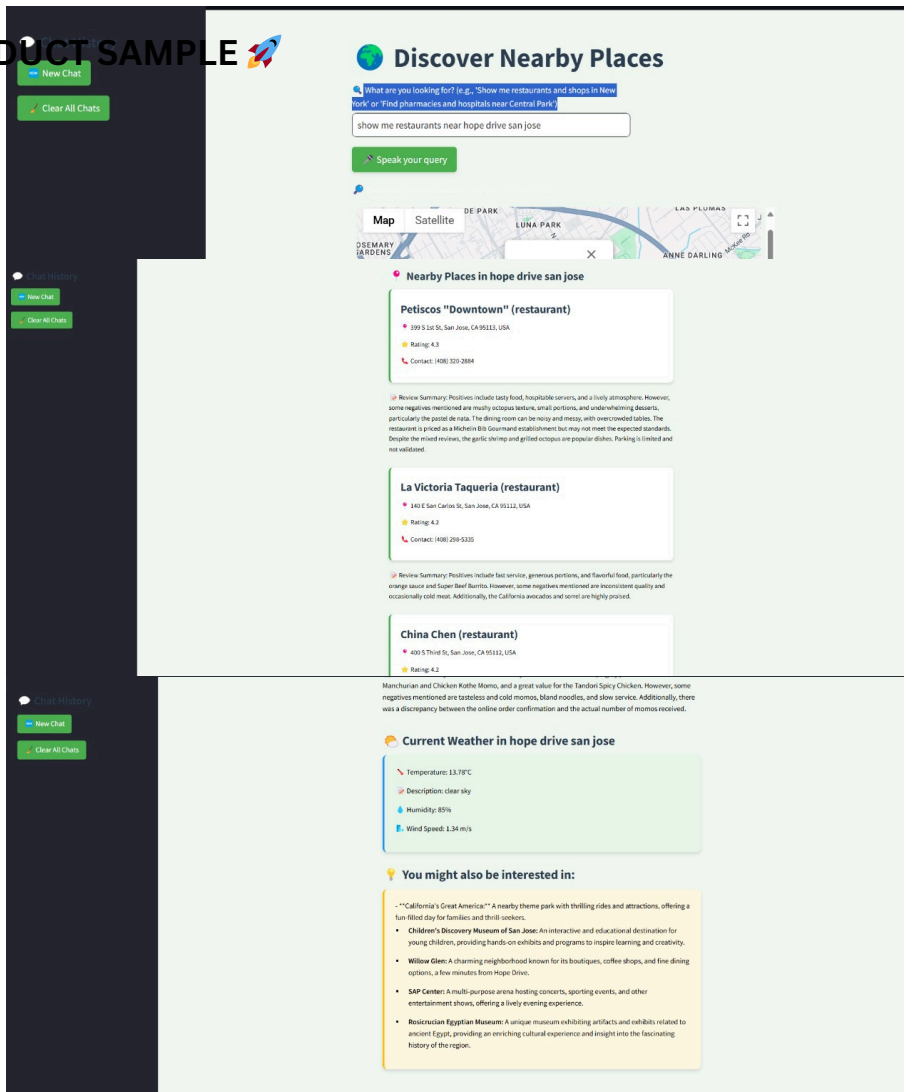

The system offers a user-friendly and engaging approach compared to traditional apps, providing details based on the user's query, such as names, addresses, ratings, reviews, photos, and even weather updates.

This AI-driven LLM tool also supports multi-language and voice input, making it more accessible and user-friendly. It ensures users receive accurate and relevant results quickly, enhancing their experience while saving time and effort.
